

Flamenco Movie Matinee

Fuenteovejuna (2011 - 106 minutes)

Antonio Gades, director

Performed by Compañía Antonio Gades at the Teatro Real in Madrid

Antonio Gades' last choreographed work, Fuenteovejuna, is a signature piece of the purity and precision of Spanish dance and Gades highlights the enormous richness of this discipline. Flamenco, folklore and stylized dance all serve to tell perfectly the story of solidarity, making flamenco and Spanish dance become a universal language.

Based on a true story that inspired Lope de Vega to write his classic play in 1619, Fuenteovejuna is about tyranny and the will of a people to choose freedom.

Saturday, March 2, 2019 at 4 PM

Esmeralda Enrique Spanish Dance Company Studio

401 Richmond Street West, Suite B104

Pay What You Can (suggested $5)

